Dear Grand Masters, Masters, Instructors, and Students,

This year marks the 50th Anniversary of Taekwon-Do. In celebration of this milestone we are hosting an International Championship Event in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA. This event will take place on July 23, 2005 at the Cashman Center, 850 Las Vegas Blvd North. In attendance will be several of the pioneering Grand Masters of Taekwon-Do, including Grand Master Nam, Tae Hi.

We would like to extend an open invitation to all ICTF, GTF, ITF, Chon-Ji, and Ch'ang-Hon style martial artists to join in this celebration. All belts up to 6th Dan are welcome to compete in sparring and patterns.

There will be several exciting events coinciding with the tournament, including a banquet in celebration of the many Grand Masters that will be there. Don't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity to celebrate 50 years of the amazing martial art we call Taekwon-Do, and the opportunity to honour those who helped establish this legacy.

The Championship's host city, Las Vegas, is one of the most popular man-made tourist attractions in the world. It was originally a centre for gambling and gaming built in the desert of southern Nevada. Over the past few years it has grown in size and sophistication and is now home to a staggering variety of attractions. The shows are spectacular, as are the casinos and the food is just terrific. Dining and shopping currently bring in almost as much revenue as gambling and are expected to outrun it within the next two years.

In addition to spectacular casinos and showcase entertainment, Las Vegas contains thirteen amusement and theme parks, numerous museums, gardens, zoos, aquariums and a wide variety of free shows and entertainment. We look forward to welcoming you to Las Vegas!

Warm Regards

Grand Master Kong, Young Il
